1	Welcome and introduction: Mrs Godber welcomed School Council to the meeting.
2	Matters arising Trust awards Assembly Great KS1 and KS2 assembly. The message is out to Parents/Carers through parent mail. Ernhale School visit. Vaed and Naomi spoke to School Council regarding their Parliamentary visit to Ernhale Primary School. Vaed and Naomi talked about ideas and activities that Ernhale do i.e. 5 ways to wellbeing, they have a "Self-Week" and each day they do Yoga, listen to relaxing music with reading time straight after lunch for a calmer afternoon. 100 Book Challenge - Big focus on music, each child in the class has access to a music instrument such as drums, flute and guitars. "The forest" which was a quiet place to go during lunchtimes where children can go to read and relax. During School Council class time, reps will share these ideas, along with others to see if we would like something similar at Edwalton and report back at the next meeting  Other suggestions, School Reading Challenge, Lego club, reading areas at lunchtime maybe the peace garden, Lunchtime Dojos.  Arrangements for Comic Relief Friday 15th March  Lily and Naomi will collect cakes from the classroom. Stefan will put out tables in the playground at 3.20pm.  Thomas, Sam Vaed, Aran, Aiden, Lara and Finley volunteered to help and will meet with Miss Robins at 3.15pm to price up cakes and help sell	28 th March School council Reps
